WINE OFFER

Kaikenes are wild geese, native to Patagonia, that fly across the Andes between Chile and Argentina.

Montes, the Chilean winery, crossed the Andes in the same way to set up in Mendoza. Their vineyards are situated in the heart of Mendoza and further to the south in Valle de Uco, where many of the premium producers are now sourcing their fruit.

The focus is primarily on Malbec and Cabernet Sauvignon, a variety that has been somewhat forgotten as Malbec has surfed one wave of success after another in the past decade. Kaiken's own vineyards supply 70% of their production requirements and 30% is from vineyards that they control.

On the palate, the tannins are soft and rounded, providing a velvety texture to the wine. Black fruit flavours remain present alongside notes of dark chocolate and roasted coffee.

If red is not your thing, please ask your server about which white or rosé is available.
